SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT
FLUSH THE KIDNEYS AT ONCE WHEN BACK OR BLADDER BOTHERS.
No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.
The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.
Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

CHICAGO WHEAT LOSSES
MARKET LACKS SNAP AND CLOSURES DOWN WITH ABSENCE OF FOREIGN BUSINESS.
CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Wheat market prices were generally weak all day with a closing 1-1/4c off for September, 3-8c for December and 1-4c for May. Market opened weak all around. There was no session abroad and the absence of foreign business added to the already weak tone shown locally.
Broomhall called from Liverpool that the Liverpool clearing house will be closed today against any new business, but old business will be margined to Saturday's close. There is hardly any disposition shown here for business as the political crisis has demoralized everything. Forty-five shillings is quoted for nearby Australian cargoes and these are insured for 25 shillings. The food supply is a question which is causing serious discussion in parliamentary circles.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 4.—No quotations for grain are being put out at all by local milling or exporting interests and quotations, as printed are therefore nominal.
With no possibility of at present taking advantage of the foreign demand for grain, the trade here is compelled to sit idle and await developments.

Chicago was the only market of importance to remain open yesterday and the price there was weaker and lower during the morning session. No session for futures was held at Liverpool, although the spot wheat market there was reported not only firmer, but higher.
Coarse grains are in exactly the same position as wheat.
The hay market is quiet and almost featureless.

RUSSIA REAL ENEMY OF AUSTRIA IN WAR
hunger of Serbia and Greece with their ally, Montenegro and turning them against Bulgaria, which was the predominant military factor in the war of 1912.
Bulgaria's Defeat Unexpected.
The Greco-Serbian successes, though, were another development for which Berchtold was unprepared. After Bulgaria had been defeated by the combination of five nations, including Turkey, the clamor at Belgrade against the annexation of Bosnia-Herzegovina by Austria was resumed with redoubled vituperativeness and noisy rancor.
This agitation, it has been pointed out by Berchtold, was the direct cause of the tragedy at Sarajevo, when the archduke and his morganatic wife fell by bullets fired by a Serbian. The Austrian minister of foreign affairs demonstrated, in the judicial inquiry that followed the crime, that Serbian officials, civil and military, had been involved in the events that led to the assassination.
The moment for action had come. Berchtold surmised the international horizon.
He observed that Russia was involved in a big strike which had a revolutionary tinge.
That France was in a turmoil of political uncertainty.
That Great Britain was facing an internal convulsion as a result of the Ulster situation.
Ultimatum Well Timed.
The Austrian ultimatum on Serbia, demanding an apology for Serbia's part in the tragedy of Sarajevo and an expression of the anti-Austrian sentiment in Belgrade, following promptly, in the midst of the preoccupation of the triple entente.
Berchtold realizes more clearly than anybody else that he has challenged the entire Slav world with one exception of Bulgaria; that his quarrel is not with Serbia, but with Russia, which has stood back of Serbia in her attacks upon Austria. In other words, the test of strength which he has precipitated brings to a focus the long deferred battle for supremacy between the German and Russian nations.

PROSPECTIVE CITIZENS WANT TO FIGHT ABROAD
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—More than a hundred Serbians and Austrians, who have obtained their first papers of naturalization in Alameda county, applied to County Clerk John P. Cook in Oakland for information as to what their status would be if they returned to their native land to fight. Cook replied in each instance that if they returned they would invalidate their naturalization proceedings.

In taking out the first papers, applicants must take an oath transferring their allegiance from the ruler of their native country to the president of the United States. Cook declared that if applicants returned to fight for another ruler they would be clearly violating their oath.
Many of the inquirers were disappointed at the receipt of the information, while others declare their intention of returning in spite of the consequences.

AUSTRIAN DESTROYERS PURSUE MONTENEGRINS
ATHENS, Greece, Aug. 4.—The Montenegro royal yacht, Pelagora, was almost captured by the Austrian fleet blockading Autavari. The yacht was approaching the port, but when she sighted the blockade she turned and fled. She was pursued by Austrian destroyers but arrived safely at Corfu.
